Cecil County Arts Council, Inc.
Community Arts Development Grant Program Guidelines FY 2022

PURPOSE

The Community Arts Development Grant program of the Cecil County Arts Council, Inc. is designed to:

- Foster excellence in the arts in Cecil County
- Provide project support for non-profit organizations to bring quality arts programs to residents
- Encourage audience awareness of, and participation in, artistic expression in all media.

WHAT QUALIFIES

- Arts programs that encourage active community participation. Community can be defined as demographic, geographic, ethnic groups and may include special interest groups such as senior citizens, handicapped, etc.
- Applications from non-profit organizations located in Cecil County.

CONDITIONS OF APPLICATION

- Grant must be for a specific project, on-going or one-time.
- The project/event must be open to the general public.
- Former recipients of a CCAC grant must meet all reporting requirements, including final narrative and financial reports, before a new application will be accepted.
- The project/event must take place between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022.
- Applicants must provide letters of support and acknowledgment from school principals and/or community association representative(s) for activities planned for school(s) and/or neighborhood facilities.
- Organizations must include their most recent operating budget and financial statement, 501(c)(3) non-profit status verification letter, list of Board of Directors, and one copy of any recent publicity materials. Financial information is considered confidential and will not be disclosed unless required by federal or state law.

- Original and six collated copies of the application are required (only one copy of CD/DVD is required). The application form must be signed by an authorized official.
- CCAC cannot be responsible for providing insurance coverage related to these projects.
- Projects funded by CCAC's CAD grant program cannot receive a CCAC Opportunity Fund Grant during the same fiscal year. Only one CAD/AiE grant application may be submitted by a single tax ID # each fiscal year.

RESTRICTIONS

CAD/AiE funds will not be granted for the following types of projects:

- Capital campaigns, including purchase, construction or renovation of a facility
- Equipment purchases
- Individual artist awards
- Creation of art projects in which the community is not engaged
- Profit-making or commercial ventures
- Retirement of existing debt
- Fund-raising events (including cocktail parties, dinner dances, raffles, etc.)
- Organizations /projects which discriminate on the basis of age, sex, religion, race or ethnic background
- Unrelated administrative costs, tuition, travel and activities limited to an organization's membership

CONDITIONS

If a grant is awarded, the applicant must agree to the following conditions:

- Funds will be granted on a matching basis only. A one-to-one (or better) cash match is required. Earned income from the project may be used as part of the applicant match.
- Applicant agrees to adhere to all conditions outlined in "Key Conditions".
- Applicant must notify the Cecil County Arts Council, Inc., of any major changes to the project as outlined in the application.

- Applicant must provide the CCAC with complimentary tickets to the event, if requested.
- All promotional material, advertising, and programs, must note that “the program/event was funded in part by a grant from the Cecil County Arts Council, Inc., as provided by the Maryland State Arts Council, an agency funded by the State of Maryland and the National Endowment for the Arts.”
- A Final Report Form, included in this Grant Packet, must be completed and returned to CCAC at the end of the project.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

The Arts Council will consider the following criteria when approving applications:

- Artistic quality
- Evidence of responsible management and sound fiscal practices
- Support by the community
- Feasibility of the project
- Administrative effectiveness
- Willingness to seek a variety of funding sources, including the local community and businesses
- Uniqueness of the project to further the applicant’s artistic program
- Strength of the project to further the mission of the Arts Council: “...to promote, present and sustain the arts in Cecil County.” Projects taking place outside the county or state will be given lowest priority.

REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

Recipients of the grant funds will be expected to comply with all of the criteria above. In addition, grant recipients will be required to keep accurate financial records showing how grant funds were used. A final narrative and fiscal report will be required of the grant recipient within 30 days of completion of the project. Failure to complete the final report may affect an organization’s eligibility for future funding.

REVIEW PROCESS

The review process will consist of the following:

- A Review Panel composed of artists, community members and arts administrators will evaluate each application. The decisions of the panel are final and meeting the application criteria does not guarantee grant funds.
- The panel will rank the applications according to the evaluation criteria.
- The panel will make recommendations to the Board of Directors of the Cecil County Arts Council, Inc. The Board of Directors will make all final funding decisions.
- In the case of a competitive grant year, grants may be awarded in amounts less than the grant request. All grant awards are subject to available arts council funding.

The following schedule will be used:

August 6 – All applications must be received and USPS postmarked. Late applications will not be accepted.

September – The CAD Grant Review Panel will review applications and offer the CCAC Board of Directors recommendations on the projects to be funded.

September– All grant applicants will be notified of the decisions and actual award amounts may not yet be determined. Grant recipients agree to adhere to all grant guidelines and conditions and to attend the CCAC event on Friday, November 5, 2021, for public recognition. Failure to adhere to conditions or failure to send a representative to the event may result in forfeiture of grant award.

6. How do you generally market your events?

7. If your organization is a presenter, what effort was made to network with other presenters in the booking of these art events?

8. Describe the types of services, information, and support the Cecil County Arts Council can provide to your organization.

Key Conditions

1. Applicant must notify the CCAC of any major changes to the project outlined in the application. This includes changes to the proposed budget.
2. At least one month prior, applicant must notify the Arts Council of the event's location, date and time to ensure proper publicizing of the event.
3. Credit for the Arts Council MUST be commensurate with that of other sponsors at the same level, whether private or public.
4. When the Arts Council's financial support comprises the largest individual share of funding for a project, performance or exhibition, acknowledgment of the Arts Council shall be proportionally more prominent in the printed, audio and video materials, internet, publicity and advertising than acknowledgment of other sources of financial support.
5. If it is a ticketed event, recipient must reserve 2 complimentary tickets for CAD/AiE review personnel to attend event.
6. All advertising and publicity materials for funded program MUST contain the following statement: "this program/event was funded, in part, by a grant from the Cecil County Arts Council, as provided by the Maryland State Arts Council, an agency funded by the state of Maryland and the National Endowment for the Arts."
7. Please offer public recognition of the Arts Council's contribution to the project at each of the events funded.
8. Please file your required Final Report, no later than 30 days after the completion of the project. Also please enclose a copy of your most recent final report in this year's grant application, if applicable.
9. Phone calls regarding the application will not be accepted by the Arts Council on the due date of the application.
10. Awarded organizations agree to send a representative to the official awards ceremony on November 5, 2021, 6:00 – 11:00 p.m. Failure to attend could forfeit the award.
11. It is the sole responsibility of the preparer of the grant application to ensure all compliance with all conditions. Failure to comply with these requests will jeopardize future funding.
