The Arts Council staff is available to assist with completion of this scholarship application, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. 410-392-5740.

Submissions sent by fax or email will not be accepted.

The Cecil County Arts Council is supported by membership donations, private and corporate sponsorship, and a grant from the MD State Arts Council, an agency funded by the State of MD and the National Endowment for the Arts.

General Information: The Cecil County Arts Council is a private, non-profit organization committed to presenting, promoting and sustaining the arts in Cecil County. In keeping with its mission, the arts council established a scholarship fund to provide opportunities for emerging artists to develop and practice their art. The goals of the Scholarship Program are to:

- Encourage students to pursue a career in the arts
- Assist students with tuition costs and fees

Eligibility: Applicant must be a legal resident of Cecil County. Applicant must be a graduating senior who plans to enroll in a full-time (12+ credits per semester) undergraduate degree program in the arts, or a student currently enrolled in an art program at an undergraduate level. Past or present employees, board members of CCAC and their immediate families are not eligible. Scholarship funds must be used primarily for tuition and fees.

Deadline: Submit the signed, original application, plus one additional copy, postmarked by 4 p.m., August 2, 2024. If hand-delivered, it must be submitted during regular business hours. Include one copy of support materials. Late, faxed, or emailed submissions will not be accepted.

Review Process: There will be a two-step review process. The arts council staff will review applications for eligibility, completeness, and accuracy. In August, the Scholarship Committee (including the arts council director, artists and educators) will review the applications and select the scholarship recipients.

Review Criteria: Each applicant will be reviewed based upon the following criteria as demonstrated in work samples and other materials submitted:

- Artistic merit/excellence
- Demonstrated understanding of artistic discipline
- Ability of the student to articulate artistic concepts
- Commitment to a career in the arts
- A successful record in an academic setting (minimum 3.0 GPA)

Notification: Applicants will be notified in writing by Sept/Oct 2024, as to the disposition of their application. Scholarship recipients will receive public recognition and a certificate of award during the September or October gallery reception.

Disbursement of Funds: After the arts council receives verification that the applicant is enrolled, full-time, in an arts degree program at an accredited school, scholarship funds will be sent directly to the Registrar's Office. After receipt of the initial award letter, it becomes the recipient's responsibility to maintain contact with the arts council and to adhere to all reporting requirements and responsibilities. The Scholarship Committee is not required to award all of the scholarship monies available and reserves the right to forward any un-awarded monies to the following year's fund.

Application Guidelines: Only complete applications will be considered. An application which is incomplete, unclear, conditional, or contains irregularities will be rejected without evaluation. Applications must NOT be handwritten. Those that are will not be accepted. Attach materials with paperclips and place completed application in a large envelope. Do not staple or submit materials in binders or plastic sheets. Do not send materials other than those required. Additional items will not be included in the review process. All application materials must be USPS postmarked by August 2, 2023 is being sent by mail. No late or incomplete applications will be accepted. All decisions of the Scholarship Committee and the Cecil County Arts Council are final. Submission of an application constitutes an understanding and agreement of the conditions set forth in these guidelines.
